MY GOAL AS YOUR

IS TO HELP MY

THEIR FITNESS GOALS
AND ENJOY OUR
TRAINING EXPERIENCE
TOGETHER!

Training Philosophy:

Cross Training with Movements has always been my Training Philosophy. I am certified as a “Hybrid” Personal Fitness Trainer for that’s how I believe we optimize our bodies. My Triple Pillars for cross training includes Pilates + TRX + Cycling. My goal is to help my clients achieve a “Balanced Body” with stability, endurance, strength, power, and flexibility.

I’m here to share my fitness training disciplines & experiences with SMAC clients. I also want to inspire post-rehab clients to achieve a personal comeback by incorporating corrective exercise programs and providing mental encouragement for my clients to be optimistic and patient as I have personally experienced.
